Michael Goff

Artist

Teacher

Art Judge

Award-winning artist Michael has been teaching at the Sherbrooke Gallery for numerous years.

Michael was born in 1957 in Kashmir India, then moved to Australia at the age of 10. His interest in art from a young age led him to study tonal oils under teacher Carl Andersen. He then went on to teach himself to work in watercolours, acrylics, pastels and inks. In 1989 Michael began his career as an artist.

Michael has been a featured artist at several Rotary Art Shows and has been part of numerous successful solo and group exhibitions. He also has many works in private collections in Australia and overseas.

A member of the Sherbrooke Art Society since 1988, Michael has also been a member of the Australian Guild of Realist Artists since 1992.

“Learning and creating art has taken me on an exceptional journey.”

Teaching allows me to help my students create their own journeys”
